

Welcome to the Second Chance portal

The online route to the learning materials used in UN Women's Second Chance Education programme.

The portal

The portal gives online access to the courses and resources available to the Second Chance programme.

Most of the resources are held on a learning platform called Kolibri.

The Kolibri library is available offline in the women's centres used by the Second Chance programme.

The portal is like a shop-front, displaying a sample of the resources in the Kolibri library.

The portal also provides links to resources on other websites.

The basics

1. The courses are shown in panels on the Home page and the Explore page. Click a panel to find out more about a course.

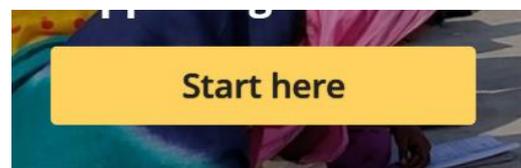

The courses are created by different organisations. A 'course' can be a video or other resource, as well as a course.

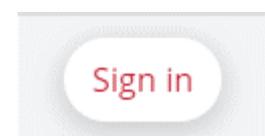

Learning pathways are displayed in similar panels. A learning pathway is a collection of courses.

2. To take a course or learning pathway, or to open any of the resources, you need to have an account and be signed in.

To create an account, click the 'Start here' button on the home page and follow the instructions in this guide.

3. Each time you come to the site, sign in. Then you can go directly to any course, video or resource you want to.

Browse and choose (1)

To browse the resources, go to the Explore page.

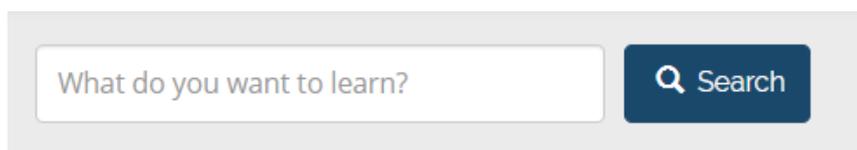

You can:

- Browse all the courses and learning paths by scrolling through them.

Where resources are in more than one language, by default only those in the language of the website are displayed.

- Search for those with a particular keyword or provider name using the Search bar.

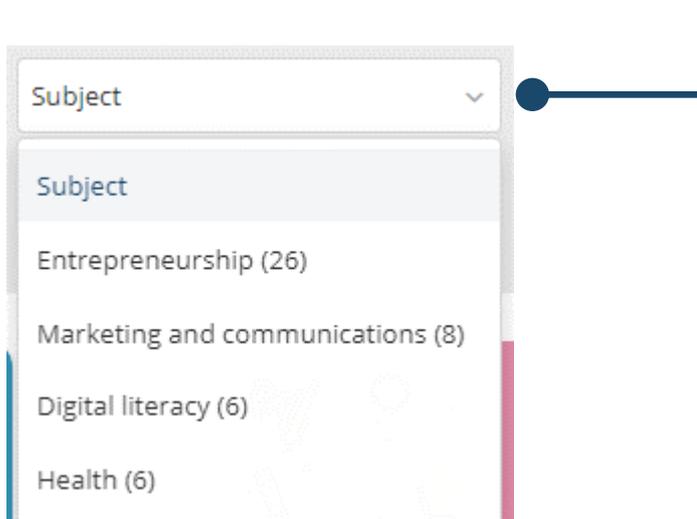

You can also do this in the search bar on the home page. Your results will show on the Explore page.

- Filter for those with certain characteristics – i.e. you can select by:
 - Learning type (course or learning path)
 - Subject
 - Level of difficulty
 - Language

Browse and choose (2)

Click the down arrow on each filter box to see the options:

The portal only shows a selection of what is in the Kolibri library.

You can also browse and search the full Kolibri library.

See 'Explore the Kolibri library'.

Take a course

1

To find out more about a course, click the panel on the Home page or the Explore page.

2

To get into the course, click 'Take this course'.

TAKE THIS COURSE

If you have already signed in, the course (or video or web page) will open in a new tab.

When you have finished, close the tab and return to the portal.

A learning pathway is a collection of courses. Each course will open in a new tab.

When you have finished a course in a learning pathway, close the tab and return to the portal to start the next one.

Explore the Kolibri library

While the portal mostly links to individual courses on Kolibri, you can also explore the whole library.

1

Find the 'Explore the Kolibri library' panel.

It will usually be on the home page. Or enter 'Kolibri' into the search bar.

2

Click 'Take this course'.

3

If you are signed in, you will see the channels in that country's Kolibri library. You can then browse or use Kolibri's own Search bar in the top right corner.
